

OUR CHURCH

In 2019, Sevier Heights called Tim Miller to be our Lead Pastor. Growing up in Knoxville and serving on our staff since 2005, Tim knew this city was as much a part of his calling as his gifting.

A transition in 2019, followed by a pandemic in 2020...it felt like it reads.

But God was preparing us for the events of 2020 by giving us steady leaders who were able to run every decision through clear vision and stable values.

Even in the hardest times we offered intentional ways for people to know Jesus, grow in community and serve with joy—all while maintaining a budget untethered by debt.

The result? Momentum that is building.

In the end, what makes Sevier Heights a special place to serve? Every program, every event, every Sunday experience is built around people knowing that following Jesus is the greatest way to live and the only way to die.

OUR CITY

Where's the best place to shape the way a city views church? From the heart of the city.

Located just two miles from the University of Tennessee campus, and just a few more miles from Knoxville's growing downtown, Sevier Heights finds itself positioned to carry out vision by simply stepping outside our doors.

God loves Knoxville, and we do too. We believe He has called us to shape the way a city views church and we can't wait to see who He calls to join us in the mission to love our city well.
